Pension application of Philip Agle S41402

Transcribed by Will Graves

State of North Carolina, Rowan County

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit at a Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions began and held for the County of Rowan at the Court House in Salisbury on the third Monday of May Anno Domini 1818 the following record was made to wit --

Phillip [sic] Agle a citizen of Rowan County North Carolina came into Open Court and made oath according to Law, that he served as a common Soldier in the revolutionary war which secured to the United States their Independence: about the year 1776 or 1777 he was enlisted into the Company of Captain Wisser, then and afterwards called "the German Regiment" attached to the Brigade of General Peter Mulenburg [sic, Muhlenberg] on the Continental establishment, that at the expiration of his term of Service, he received an honorable discharge (which he now no longer has in his possession: he further maketh oath, that being far advanced in life, he is now growing infirm in bodily health and that from his reduced and necessitous circumstances, he stands in need of the assistance of his country as held out to him by an act of Congress passed March 1818 and entitled an act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval services of the United States in the revolutionary war: -- now it appearing to the Satisfaction of the Court that the facts above Stated are true, and the same being duly corroborated by the testimony of Michael Stoner a Citizen of Rowan, who deposeth that he has long known the said Phillip Agle, and actually served with him at the time and in the manner set forth, by the said Phillip Agle in his foregoing affidavit: -- and the court being Satisfied that the said Phillip Agle Served in the Army of the United States, during the Revolutionary war against, the Common Enemy for a longer term of time than nine months -- it is therefore ordered by the court that the forgoing be made a matter of record, and that the Clerk certify and transmit the Same to the Honorable, the Secretary at War of the United States:

I John Giles Clerk of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Rowan County do hereby certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the record made in the case of Phillip Agle: --

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of said Court of office in Salisbury on the fourth of November Anno Domini 1818.
